Tito Rojas and 24 Horas to Headline Free Festival

Now in its 16th year, Festival Latino returns to downtown Columbus' Genoa Park on Saturday, August 13, and Sunday, August 14. Produced by CAPA, the festival will offer a variety of local and national Latin-American music acts including Saturday night headliner, 24 Horas, and Sunday night headliner, Tito Rojas with the Sammy DeLeón Orchestra. Admission is free.

New to the Children's Area in 2011 will be COSI's live liquid oxygen show, interactive drum circles with local musician Enrique Infante, bilingual story time, a taekwondo demonstration, and a visit from Columbus Clippers mascot Lou Seal.

Returning in 2011 is the Artists' Showcase displaying the works of Ohio-based Latin artists, the Columbus Crew children's soccer clinic, Latin dance demonstration and instruction, a Latin-inspired runway fashion show, and a large selection of food vendors offering a wide assortment of Latin-American cuisine.

Festival Latino sponsors include the City of Columbus Department of Recreation and Parks, American Family Insurance, Molina Healthcare of Ohio, Nationwide Insurance, Jay Pérez, State Farm, Almonte Express Services, Mamajuana Restaurant, Cardinal Health, Columbia Gas of Ohio, F & K Iglesia de Cristo, Ohio Lottery Commission, Progressive/Insurance Solution, Mt. Carmel Health Systems, Resource Employment Solutions, Revol, Sol Y Luna, State Auto, Time Warner Cable, VSP, and David & Mo Meuse.

Additional support is provided by Fronteras de La Noticias and Azteca America WCPX-TV 48, GTN.

Fronteras Stage Performance Schedule

SATURDAY NIGHT HEADLINER 24 Horas

Mickey, Joell and Jiory are three young New Yorkers who make up the hot, up-and-coming trio of 24 Horas. The group performs their own unique and contemporary Caribbean twist on bachata, a romance-focused musical genre that originated in the Dominican Republic. www.Grupo24Horas.com

Son del Caribe

Cincinnati-based Latin music ensemble Son del Caribe perform its energetic pan-Caribbean, pan-American, primarily salsa sound, but will also mix in merengue, cumbia, son, bomba, plenas, bachata, and reggaeton.

Ruben Ramos and the Mexican Revolution

Award-winning American Tejano music performer Ruben Ramos, also known as El Gato Negro (The Black Cat), won the 2009 Grammy Award for "Best Tejano Album of the Year" with his band, The Mexican Revolution. www.RubenRamos.com

SUNDAY NIGHT HEADLINER Tito Rojas with the Sammy DeLeón Orchestra

After 31 years and 20 albums, salsa legend Tito Rojas ("El Gallo Salsero" or "The Rooster") has earned numerous awards and accolades, including several Grammy Award nominations.

Sammy DeLeón and his orchestra combine traditional salsa rhythms with an aggressive and progressive style to produce salsa, merengue, and Latin jazz that can stop on a dime, change directions in a heart-stopping second, or shift grooves like a sports car. www.SammyDeleonySuOrquesta.com

DJ Cale

DJ Cale caters to Caribbean and Latin American tastes, spinning salsa, merengue, bachata, reggaeton, Latin pop, Latin dance, house, and a touch of American Top 40 music. www.AmayaProductions.net

The Ark Band

The Ark Band is a St. Lucian reggae band, based in Columbus. Founded in 1987 by Terry and Eustace Bobb, the group has continually toured across the U.S., Canada, and Jamaica sharing its roots in reggae, calypso, and soca music. www.TheArkBand.com

Zancudo

Lead by Victor Zancudo, this band fuses Latin pop with traditional and modern rhythms to create a sound that will make you want to dance. www.myspace.com/VictorZancudoMusic

Artist's Showcase

Ohio-based Latin artists will display and sell their work in the Artists' Showcase area. Featured artists will be:

Jose Bastidas

Ecuadorian visual artist Jose Bastidas creates paintings and murals with a surrealist and fantasy style using a variety of mediums. He also designs fashion jewelry and custom inspirational portraits.

Nohra Regina Soto Bermeo

Columbian painter Nohra Bermeo creates warm landscapes mixed with human figures oriented towards the appearance of instinct.

Wladimir and Vrindarani Muñoz

Having exhibited his work in galleries, embassies, and consulates across the globe, Ecuador-native Wladimir Muñoz experiments with different styles, techniques, and textures in oil paint to create landscapes and portraits. His daughter, Vrindarani Muñoz, is an up-and-coming painter with a focus on portraits that strive to reveal the essence of the subject.

Nohra Regina Bermeo Soto

Melissa Peña

Based in Canal Winchester, Puerto Rican photographer Melissa Peña transforms her original, urban-flavored photography into works of art using overlay and other creative manipulations.
