

Photos: Brad Feinknopf Photography

Brought back from the brink in 2009 and restored to its original splendor, The Lincoln Theatre is again a beloved cultural cornerstone in the King-Lincoln District and a treasured member of the city's family of historic theatres.

Once host to such well known performers as Count Basie, James Brown, Miles Davis, Sammy Davis, Jr., Duke Ellington, Etta James and Columbus's own Nancy Wilson, the new Lincoln Theatre now serves as home to twelve local resident arts organizations. The Lincoln welcomes appearances by national and international performing artists, and serves the community at large as a venue suitable for all major occasions from the Mayor's State of the City address, to graduations, neighborhood meetings, weddings and more.

The Lincoln Theatre has a proud legacy in Central Ohio's civic and cultural life, and now you can become part of the Lincoln's legacy while helping to safeguard its future.

Purchase a seat in the Lincoln and an engraved brass nameplate with your personal message will be permanently affixed to one of her 582 seats. Choose from 434 main floor seats at $500 each or 148 loge seats at $750 each.

Honor a loved one, business, fraternal affiliation, or simply add your own name to the roster of lives that have helped shape the bright future of this extraordinary landmark.

With your help generations to come will know and admire the Lincoln Theatre's legacy and the generous role you've played in preserving it.

To reserve your seat in the new Lincoln Theatre, contact Suzan Bradford at 614-719-6746.

lincolntheatrecolumbus.com