THANK YOU

CAPA's 50th anniversary has been a year-long celebration. In reflecting back on those 50 incredible years and looking forward to the exciting opportunities in the next 50, there is nothing more fitting to say than THANK YOU. In 1969, CAPA was formed by just a handful of individuals, but even in the early years, it took the support of the community to help us succeed.

From our initial goal of saving the beloved Ohio Theatre, we have grown to become an almost $25 million non-profit performing arts organization that owns or manages ten central Ohio entertainment venues. That doesn't happen without a community that cares, that values the arts, and that gets involved, and we are tremendously grateful for you. We celebrate this milestone with you and because of you.

So where do we go from here? Within this report, you will find the strategic pillars that are the guideposts for our future. We will grow our education programs, including the CAPA Marquee Awards that began this past season. We will broaden our programming efforts to provide something for everyone in our increasingly diverse community. We will continue to preserve and protect our world-class theatres so they can serve central Ohio for generations to come. And we will collaborate with our partners in the arts community to make Columbus a national destination for living, breathing art.

Thank you again for celebrating CAPA's 50th anniversary with us. We look forward to seeing you soon!

INAUGURAL CAPA MARQUEE AWARDS

The Columbus Association for the Performing Arts (CAPA) marked its 50th anniversary in 2019, and celebrated the milestone with fresh, new branding and a year-long, community celebration. A series of special events were held throughout the year to thank the community for 50 years of enthusiastic support of CAPA and the performing arts in Columbus.

From a free Mighty Morton Organ Concert & Singalong to commemorate the Ohio Theatre's 1969 "Farewell Concert" to a CAPA Theatres Open House Walking Tour with never-before-offered, behind-the-scenes access, CAPA opened its doors in new ways to engage and thank the community for its many years of support.

Here are some of the many ways CAPA celebrated its 50th anniversary throughout the season:

Education & Outreach

In the 2018–19 season, CAPA's Education & Outreach programs connected more than 18,000 community members of all ages, providing free and low-cost educational and artistic experiences.

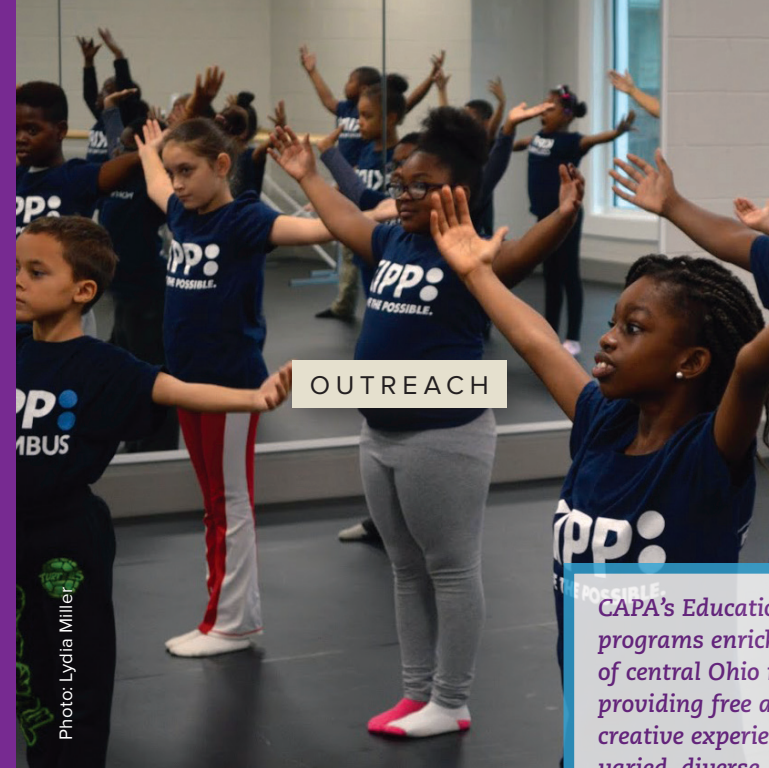

CAPA MARQUEE AWARDS

CAPA launched the CAPA Marquee Awards, an initiative designed to celebrate, support, and advocate for high school musical theatre education throughout central Ohio. Ten high schools participated in the inaugural season, engaging 744 students and staff. Throughout the year, students participated in a series of free master classes and workshops with local and regional artists and the touring Broadway casts of RENT, Disney's ALADDIN, and HAMILTON. The program culminated in the CAPA Marquee Awards Showcase, a red-carpet event featuring 157 participating student performers and technical crew in live performances and the announcement of the winners in each of the ten award categories. Congratulations to Eastmoor Academy High School on winning the inaugural CAPA Marquee Award for Best Musical Production for Rent (School Edition)!

OTHER EDUCATION HIGHLIGHTS

- In partnership with The Columbus Foundation, CAPA invited the community to participate in a series of free, spoken word workshops and a Poetry Slam inspired by themes from the Broadway musical HAMILTON. 70 participants ranging in age from 7–69 attended the community workshops, and 25 went on to compete in a Poetry Slam. The winners of the youth and adult categories were each awarded a pair of tickets to see the Broadway musical HAMILTON during its Columbus engagement.
- More than 6,000 students from 13 central Ohio counties attended CAPA's Passport to Learning student matinee series.
- In addition, CAPA awarded ticket scholarships and transportation assistance to schools with financial need.
- CAPA offered 23 free master classes and workshops to the public and school/community groups this season, reaching more than 1,000 community members.

PALACE THEATRE RENOVATION

- All the decorative plaster work from the 60-foot-high dome to the floor was restored.
- The ceiling and walls were repainted in a new color scheme that blends historical references with fresh, new colors.
- The arches lining the walls were inlaid with a complementary damask-patterned wall covering. Massive red drapes were installed in the largest arches above the upper boxes.
- New seats were installed on the main floor, and balcony seats were refurbished.
- All 70 light fixtures were refurbished, including the grand chandelier. A new LED house lighting system was installed in the dome and main chandelier. 1,200 light bulbs were replaced, and more than 100,000 crystals were polished and reassembled.
