community outreach

Because we strive to bring the transformative power of the arts into our community, each year Education & Outreach creates one or more projects at no charge to participants. ON GOLDEN WINGS

In October, we will have a weeklong engagement with Greatest Stories Never Told and their production of On Golden Wings, an interactive living history play with music that shares the untold story of James Herman Banning and Thomas Cox Allen, the first African Americans to fly across the United States.

In 1932, the duo made the 3,300-mile trip from Los Angeles to Long Island, NY in 41 hours and 27 minutes aloft. However, the trip required 21 days to complete because the pilots had to raise money for the next leg each time they stopped. One of these stops landed them in Ohio where the congregants of Second Baptist Church, Columbus's oldest Black Baptist Church, helped the pair by donating money, fuel, food, and shelter.

In addition to travelling to Worthington Christian Village, The Reeb Center, and two local schools, the company will also perform two student matinees at the Lincoln Theatre on October 7. Each performance will be followed by a talkback with the cast.

On Saturday, October 8, all are welcome to join us at the Lincoln Theatre for a paper airplane flying contest at 1:30 pm where prizes will be awarded! A FREE community performance of On Golden Wings will follow at 3pm.

JOIN US FOR EL DÍA DEL NIÑO!

On Sunday, April 30 we will celebrate El Día del Niño, The Day of the Child by hosting a family-friendly event at the Lincoln Theatre.

Long before the United Nations suggested that countries adopt a National Children's Day in honor of the Children's Rights Declaration of 1959, Mexico was already celebrating El Día del Niño as a national holiday.

Today, it has evolved into an event that is celebrated in many Latin American countries later in the spring ahead of Mother's Day and Father's Day, and now also incorporates a focus on children's literacy. It has come to include festivals, parades, activities, and specials events at places like malls and amusement parks.

On April 30, 2023, we will celebrate our own El Día del Niño at the Lincoln Theatre. At 1:30pm in the Lincoln Ballroom, we will host FREE cultural arts activities and games. And at 3pm, we will present a FREE community performance of Cenicienta: A Bilingual Cinderella in the Lincoln Theatre.
