Elvis Lives features winners and finalists from Elvis Presley Enterprise's (EPE) annual, worldwide Ultimate Elvis Tribute Artist Contest, each representing Elvis during different stages of his career. The tour marks the third time in the production's six-year history that all three Elvis tribute artists are winners of the contest—Bill Cherry (2009), Dean Z (2013), and Jay Dupuis (2014). They will be joined by a live band, backup singers and dancers, and an Ann-Margret tribute artist.

The tour has added more songs including "Return to Sender" and "Bossa Nova" among others. As a co-producer of the tour, Graceland is providing rarely seen restored video and photo assets from its archives to enhance the production. Fans can also expect new material and Elvis memorabilia provided by Graceland in the Elvis Lives lobby display at each performance.
