A Capella Country Band HOME FREE to Rock the Rafters of the Southern Theatre September 30

Champions of NBC's fourth season of "The Sing-Off," country a cappella band Home Free is entertaining audiences across the country with their high-energy show peppered with quick-witted humor that meshes Nashville standards with pop hits dipped in country flavor.

CAPA presents Home Free at the Southern Theatre (21 E. Main St.) on Wednesday, September 30, at 8 pm. Tickets are $26.50-$100 (VIP) at the CAPA Ticket Center (39 E. State St.), all Ticketmaster outlets, and www.ticketmaster.com. To purchase tickets by phone, please call (614) 469-0939 or (800) 745-3000.

When country a cappella band Home Free was crowned Season 4 Champions of NBC's "The Sing-Off," the victory was by no means the beginnings of a career for the five country stars from Minnesota. Rather, it was a culmination of nearly a decade of hard work and commitment to a vocal craft growing in popularity.

Founded by brothers Chris and Adam Rupp during their college years, Home Free had been perfecting their live show for years prior to "The Sing-Off," performing for crowds in countless state and county fairs, on college campuses, at Fortune 500 companies, and in theaters all across the country. It was their experience on the road that carried them to a "Sing-Off" victory, swelling their fan base and bringing their homegrown country style into a national spotlight.
